Email application and questions to:
post2015bloggers@gmail.com

Due date: 1 August

Notification of selection: 8 August

The group selected will receive accreditation as bloggers for the Conference and will have the opportunity to meet and interview representatives from over 1,800 NGOs from all over the world; UN and government officials; UN agencies; corporations; civil society; educational, health and financial institutions; academics; private sector speakers from business and philanthropy, and others.

Selected conference blog posts will be shared on the official United Nations and DPI/NGO blogs.

Conference Background:

The Conference will focus on harnessing the strategies, expertise and resources across the broadest spectrum of civil society to move poverty eradication, sustainability, human rights and climate justice into the mainstream discourse, and spark sustained public demand for lasting political action in support of an ambitious outcome from the post-2015 sustainable development process. Details on the Conference can be found at:
